

Carey's Corner

This month, I'll share some memory gems with you on the topic of Winning and Losing.

* "When the One Great Scorer comes to mark against your name, He writes, not that you won or lost, but how you played the game." (Grantland Rice—Dean of American Sportswriters)

* "When you win, don't crow; and, when you lose, don't cry." (Bill Bradley—former pro basketball player and U.S. Senator)

* If you think you are beaten, you are.
If you think you dare not, you don't.
If you like to win, but you think you can't,
It's almost certain you won't.
For, out in the world, you'll find
Success begins with a fellow's will.
It's all in the state of mind.

* Nobody cares what your alibi is.
Each one thinks of his own.
Nobody cares for your pet excuse.
Nobody hears you moan.
There is the score; that's all they see.
What else is there to cheer?
Tell 'em the reasons why you lost,
But nobody cares to hear.

Until next time this is Dick Carey reminding you that, at "Carey's Corner," you always have someone in your corner.
